Days Inn - Barrie Earns National Hospitality Award

Barrie, ON, February 19, 2009 – Days Inn - Barrie was awarded the distinguished Days Inns - Canada Chairman's Award for Quality. The hotel is one of just 13 hotels in Canada recognized for continually demonstrating excellence in operational tasks and customer service extending from guestroom cleanliness to landscaping.

"This outstanding achievement can be attributed to the efforts of our entire team at Days Inn - Barrie," said Stella Gan, General Manager, Days Inn - Barrie. "We work as a team and make it our goal to ensure each guest's stay is a distinctive and memorable experience."

The award was presented at the Days Inn Worldwide Conference in Orlando, Florida by Irwin Prince, President & COO of Days Inns - Canada. As part of the Chairman's Award selection process, a Quality Assurance Representative visits the hotel unannounced twice a year. The inspector is an experienced hotel professional who evaluates up to 550 individual items at each property.

Conveniently located near Barrie's commercial and downtown districts at 60 Bryne Drive, Days Inn - Barrie provides convenient access to two major thoroughfares - highway 400 and Essa Road. Standard guestroom accommodations feature comfortable double queen or king-size beds, high-speed Internet access, movies-on-demand, a microwave, mini-fridge, hairdryer, coffee maker, iron and ironing board. Deluxe family and honeymoon suites featuring a jet tub and fireplace are also available. Other services and amenities include a salt water indoor pool, fitness center, gift shop, meeting facilities, guest laundry and business centre. Guests will also enjoy a complimentary Daybreak Café breakfast and National Post newspaper.
