FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

DAYS INN – BARRIE EARNS NATIONAL HOSPITALITY AWARDS

BARRIE, ON (September 28, 2010) – Days Inn - Barrie was once again awarded the prominent Days Inns - Canada Chairman's Award for Quality, Award of Recognition for Maintenance / Engineering Team of the Year, as well as Platinum Service Award for one of the team members, Kaitlyn Brooking. The hotel is one of just 12 hotels in Canada recognized for continually demonstrating excellence in operational tasks and customer service extending from guestroom cleanliness to landscaping.

This is the 5th year in a row the hotel has received the Chairman's Award for Quality and the second Platinum Service Award for Brooking who has been employed at Days Inn – Barrie since 2005.

The award was presented at the Wyndham Hotel Group Global Conference in Las Vegas, Nevada by Irwin Prince, President & COO of Realstar Hospitality. Days Inn hotels that receive the highest quality assurance scores receive the coveted Chairman's Award for Quality. These hotels continuously go above and beyond in daily operations and customer service requirements. Platinum Service Awards are awarded to Days Inn hotel staff that consistently exceed guest expectations, provide memorable stays and create outstanding guest experiences. Nominations for this award come directly from hotel guests.

Owned and managed by Liberty Hospitality Corporation, Days Inn - Barrie is a pet-friendly, wheelchair accessible 78-room hotel located at 60 Bryne Drive, ideal for leisure and business travellers alike. Guests will enjoy a free Daybreak Café breakfast and free high-speed Internet access. Days Inn - Barrie boasts an indoor swimming pool, meeting rooms and exercise facilities. Guest rooms with a microwave and mini-fridge are also available, and the hotel provides Days Inn's signature SolTerre shower experience featuring a Waterpik six-function showerhead and grapefruit essence SolTerre bathroom amenities.
